

2010 Bud Light Charity Challenge Tennis Tournament

The Pensacola Sports Association joins long-time partner, The Lewis Bear Company, to present the sixth annual Bud Light Charity Challenge Tennis Tournament. The event will be played at Roger Scott Tennis Center, September 10th and 11th. The charity beneficiary is ARC Gateway. Please consider donating a silent auction item to support the wonderful work of the Pensacola Sports Association and ARC Gateway.

The Pensacola Sports Association is a non-profit organization that uses funds raised to provide numerous athletic and sports recognition events to the Pensacola community such as Racquet Round-Up, Double Bridge Run 15K, High School All-Star Series Games, Gulf South Conference Soccer Championships, Wall of Fame, Annual Awards Banquet, Pensacola Marathon and the Senior Scholar-Athlete Banquet.

Mission

ARC Gateway is committed to increasing the opportunities for all persons with, or at risk of, developmental disabilities, to choose where, how and with whom they live, learn, work and play.

The PSA also works with international, national, state and local governments and other entities in the development, bidding, promotion, and operation of amateur and professional sports in Northwest Florida for the purpose of regional economic development. Today PSA organizes and assists over 40 events per year bringing thousands of individuals per year to the community and pumping millions of dollars into the local economy.
